CLASS PROPHECY

Judith Wall

The prosperous city of Reidsville, encompassed by the June sunshine of the year 1967, welcomed crowds of gaily dressed people in the stadium on the spacious high school grounds. Its seats were rapidly filling with the throngs who wanted to have a part in the reunion of the class of 1957.

"A fine class," remarked gray-haired Mr. McKinney. "As fine a class as the school ever sent out. I was a member of the School Board when they graduated and we were certainly proud of them."

"Are most of the members here?" asked Dr. Moricle. "I'm told they are expecting a large group today."

"Yes, a very large group came," replied Mr. McKinney. "That's Eula Smith over there. She just came in from a big dress convention in Chicago. They're expecting a number of the old class to come on the next train."

The line was forming for the procession. Nelson Young, president of the Student Council when this class graduated, stood and began to speak above the cheers from the people who had gathered for this gay reunion:

"Ladies and gentlemen, schoolmates of many happy days, and friends of the bygone years, I see before me many new faces, but I also behold many faces that were dear to this class ten years ago. Friends, you saw us go forth upon that memorable occasion bearing the awards of commencement. We have returned bearing the trophies laden with honors for the best school a class ever left, Reidsville High School. Before we proceed with the address of the occasion, I wish to present the members of the Class of 1957.

We have a group of fine nurses represented here today, included are Arlene Stanley, Willie Sparks, Gretchen Watlington, Sandra Saunders, Peggy Meeks, Martha Bugher, Pat Faulkner, Dorothy Dill, Ella R. Lively, and Yvonne Brame. Then here are the excellent secretaries that have come from this honored class. They are: Nellie Bennett, Becky Montgomery, Carolyn Arnold, Hilda Cooke, Ann Somers, Louise King, Doris O'Bryant, Diana Cobb, Jane Dye, Margaret Williams, Lola Wray, Marie Stanley, Regina Bailey, Anne W. Foster, Julia Somers, Rosilee Baynes, Betty Hash, Elaine Stanley, Doris Sapaugh, Linda Haney, Nancy Burroughs, Linda Dixon, Shirley Dickerson, Linda Vaughn, and Carolyn Smith.

We are really proud to see the wonderful teachers that our class gave to the Reidsville School system. Teaching now in the high school are Nelda Joyce, Malinda McKinney, Kay Washburn, and Sarah Davis. The elementary schools received Shirley Thompson, Judith Wall, Camille Stone, and Shelby Strickland.

We are really glad to hear that Roger Carter became a millionaire by his gold and emerald prospecting in the western part of North Carolina. Pat Mitchell and Judy Edwards are X-Ray technicians in the local hospital. Sandra Allen and Linda Butler are social workers in a large southern city. Edmund Lively is YMCA worker. Poor Joe Sasser is pulling teeth. Jimmy Chaney and Nat Walker are still toughing it out as radio announcers.

Bob Pearson, Fred Walker, Rogers Paschal, Bobby Hall, and Bill Cliborne are mechanics at a local garage. Warren McCall, Charles Jolly, Ruby Pickrell, Donald Brown, Arthur Cobb, and Joel Chaney are owners of big factories in N.C. Hazel Crouse has become very famous as a northern commercial artist. Robert Knight and Lee McKinney are still living on the farm with their cows. Barbara Bray is hostess with T.W.A. Wayne French and Dennis Walters have reached success at everything they have tried.

Wayne Brown, Jimmy Cooke, and Ronald Elliott went to California to work but ended playing baseball. Wiley O'Bryant and Charles McCollum went into civil engineering. Loureta Lamb and Shirley Chapmon are busy church workers. Casey Watkins, Carlton Harrelson, and Mike Gentry are Highway Patrol troopers.

I heard from different sources that Buster Arnold and Gene Garrett have received great honors for their work with mathematics. Anne Gardner is a bank teller at the city bank. James Stone is still going around taking pictures of odd things. Tommy Sutton, Bill Comer, and Rupert Jones are local salesmen for the A. T. Co. Uncle Sam received Vivian Echoles, J. L. Hensley, Maxie Cooper, Garland Paschal, and Roger Tuttle. Girls who were wearing diamonds when we graduated are old married folk now. They were Mary Dove, Lula Letchworth, Frances White, Joy Dye, Jane Dye, and Jennie Chapmon.

Anne Orren is a research chemist. Dickie Powell and Harry Mullis are working in nuclear physics. Bill Brannock, Carl Saunders, Tommy Wilkerson, and Dwight Hall are nuclear engineers. James Denny and Garland Teague drive for the McLean Trucking Co. Sylvia Jarrell is an officer in the Salvation Army. Louise Cobb is working at dear old Sears. Joe Pegram is working for the government. Bill Springs is a chemical engineer. Terre Smith is a Florida pharmacist.

On the program today are entertainers: Ouida Apple, Brenda Dove, and Davis Washburn. Donald Elliott and Jo Anne Davis will enact a scene from their latest movie.

Now, dear friends, having introduced the old Class of 1957, I will proceed to introduce the speaker of the day--the next President of the United States, the honorable James K. Fleagle.

Look To The FUTURE

Opportunities today in the textile industry are truly unlimited. New man-made and natural fibers, with their almost limitless uses, are continually opening newer and broader fields for manufacturing, research and development, design, and merchandising.

Burlington Industries, a young organization, which had its beginnings in North Carolina only 34 years ago, is today the world's leading textile concern.

Because of its broad diversification, Burlington offers to the young man or woman seeking a career in the textiles truly unlimited opportunities in every phase of the textile field.

~~Darling Dearest~~ Dear Well!! Bill, dear old friend - I think you are the greatest.
Matter of fact you are my second favorite big friend. G. would have to be first - you know. You date one of the nicest, sweetest cutest, funniest girls in Peidsville too. I think G. & all make a precious couple. Get it back with her, Bill.
if you can. I hope you'll be the first of a list.

I really don't know how I could have gotten through this year if it hadn't been for you and Sue. I don't care how witty and smart you are I still think you are one of the nicest sweetest boys I ever met.

Maybe ^{congratulations} you & Sue are the only one I have to teach a trick or two -
- just kidding!

Be
Sincerely
Rene

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

State of North Carolina
County of Rockingham
City of Reidsville

Having completed our course of study and wishing to distribute our assets, we do declare this our last will and testament.

First:

To Mr. Lipscomb and Mr. Anderson, we bestow our deepest appreciation for the guidance they have rendered.

To Miss Conley, we bequeath our appreciation. Without her efforts, this yearbook would have been a dream rather than a reality.

To all members of the faculty, we leave our deep gratitude for their instruction and inspiration.

Second:

To the Junior Class, we will our places at R. H. S.

To the Sophomore Class, we grant the fun and study hours.

To the Freshman Class, we will the work needed to pass.

Third:

B. B. Springs wills his hospital bed to Larry Smith and to Steve Fleagle.

Harry Mullis leaves his parking place to anyone who has a trap to park there.

Doris Sapaugh and Marie Stanley bequeath their love for going steady to Wayne Wall and Sandra Hooper.

Betty Hash, Rosilee Baynes, Jennie Chapman, Lee McKinney, Elaine and Arlene Stanley bestow upon Kenneth Roberts, Hester Chapman, and Billy Stanley, their love for R.H.S.

J. L. Hensley, Fred Walker, Carlton Harrelson, and Wayne French leave their French books to anyone who wants them.

Dorothy Dill wills her love for French horn and band to Curtis Dickens.

To Ted Lamb, Loureta bequeaths R.H.S.'s only Spanish book.

Ann Somers leaves her love for football to Mary Linda Somers and Dot Rumlley.

Mrs. Price receives Fred's thoughts of a gold-plated typewriter.

Lola Wray wills dear old Reidsville High School to all who are left behind.

All of Mr. Hardy's math classes leave hope for a steam heated room for the winter and an air-conditioned one in the summer.

Kay Washburn leaves the radiator in French to anyone as cold as she.

Laura Lee Hetzler receives Wayne Brown's love for loafing.

Nelda Joyce wills her love for English to Peggy.

Rupert Jones, Arthur Cobb, Ronald Elliott and Mike Gentry, leave their love for football to Roger Jones, Russell Cobb, Hugh Cobb, and Jimmy Dillard.

Joe Pegram bequeaths his typewriter to Linda Combs.

Joel Chaney grants his baseball uniform to anyone who can wear it.

Dickie Powell gives to Mary Virginia the rest of her locker.

Casey Watkins leaves Mrs. Gilliam his book-keeping workbook.

Peggy Meeks and Robert Knight give their busses to Floyd Carter and Ed Meeks.

James Denny grants his knife to Gene Smith.

Nancy Burroughs bequeaths her geometry book to Ann Huskey.

Margaret Williams leaves her biology book to Ann Williams.

Dennis Walters and Martha Bugher will their seats in English class to Norma McKinney and Winston Haythe.

To Jackie Bennett and Steve Ritchie, Nellie Bennett and Carolyn Arnold leave their good times.

Helen Somers receives Julia's biology notes.

Tommy Sutton leaves his splendid typing ability to Jimmy Comer.

Garland Paschal wills his place on old "109" to Sara Dickerson.

Tommy Wilkerson makes his moods to fit anyone's occasion.

Roger Paschal and Robert Pearson bequeath to Patsy Patterson and Norma McKinney, the knowledge they didn't receive.

Davis Washburn leaves his ability to amuse to Donnie.

Margaret Worsham receives Ella Roane Lively's last place in the lunch line.

Wiley O'Bryant wills bus 116 to anyone who can drive it.

Donald Brown leaves his knowledge of agriculture to anyone who wants it.

Jimmy Fleagle and Carolyn Smith grant to Miss Carnes, a very peaceful library.

Donald Elliott leaves to someone, his spot in the lime light.

To his girl-friend, Bobby Hall bequeaths his happiness of leaving R. H. S.

Roger Tuttle leaves his love for "Chevy" trucks to a Junior.

Linda Dixon wills her baton to Sue Dent, the Baton Twirling Queen.

Malinda McKinney bestows upon some unfortunate Junior, her algebra book. We hope that person loves it!

Jimmy Chaney bequeaths nothing.

Louise Cobb leaves home economics to a future homemaker.

Bill Clibourne wills his hot-rodding ability to Sammy.

Jerry Tate receives Linda Vaughn's love for cornets and trumpets.

Terre Smith bestows upon Kay Comer the car which she uses all the time.

Roger Carter grants his gold-plated blackjack to Tommy Kallam.

To Pencie Trent and Libby Hendrix, Jo Davis bequeaths her love for travel.

Hilda Cook and Diana Cobb will their love for basketball to Patsy Griffin and Pam Apple.

Warren McCall leaves his joys of R.H.S. to you! Be happy! Life is full of disappointments.

To Annette Smothers, Charles Jolly bequeaths his love for Winston Salem.

Judy Edwards wills her pony tail to anyone who likes "jerks."

James Stone leaves his first trombone to anyone who can beat Daniel Shelton out of it.

Jane and Joy Dye leave their ability to talk, to Nita Ware and Jane Ward.

Frances White grants her reserved seat in the office to Nancy Burrow.

Willie Sparks leaves her upstairs parking place to Virginia Martin.

Eula Smith bequeaths her love for algebra to all of the unfortunate Juniors who have to take it to go to college.

Camille Stone bequeaths her love for "Short Sugar's" and organ music to Tom Childrey.

Ann Wallace Foster and Pat Mitchell bestow upon Donnalee Roberts and Phyllis Bondurant, their love for cheerleading.

Shirley Dickerson grants her love for typing to Joan Stuart.

Ouida Apple leaves to Martha Brim, her ability to pantomime.

Linda Haney and Hazel Crouse bequeath their love for dancing to Sandra Hooper and Katrina Williams.

To Brenda Chapmon and Janice Bailey, Mary Dove and Lula Letchworth will their love for diamonds.

Max Cooper and Buster Arnold leave their band seats to anyone with the ability to obtain them.

Charles McCollum grants his haircuts to Terry Key.

Regina Bailey and Pat Faulkner bequeath to Joyce Hawkins and Christine London, their good times at R.H.S.

To Mike Davis and Gail Gardner, Sara and Ann leave their English books.

Edmund Lively grants his great stature to Mac Pettigrew.

Jimmy Cooke leaves his big mouth to help Jimmy Comer get about.

Carl Saunders and Bill Comer bequeath their good times to Phyllis Hopkins and Anne Williams.

To Carolyn Bray, Barbara wills her far-away-places.

Shelby Strickland leaves her Southern accent to her sister, Vivian.

Sylvia Jarrell, Ruby Pickrell, Becky Montgomery, and Shirley Chapmon bequeath their study halls to Gail Williams, Ola Doss, and Betty Johnson.

To Phillip Watlington, Gretchen and Shirley give their pleasures of R.H.S.

Nelson Young bequeaths his beat-up Buick to Betsy.

Yvonne Brame leaves her ability to be quiet.

Virginia McCollum receives Gene Garrett's love for drawing in books.

Nat Walker leaves W.F.R.C. to get his report card, then turns on the news.

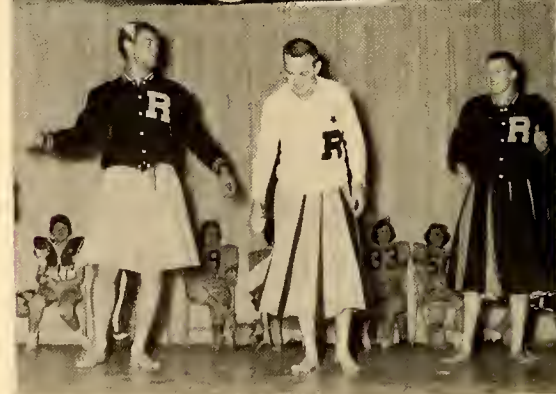

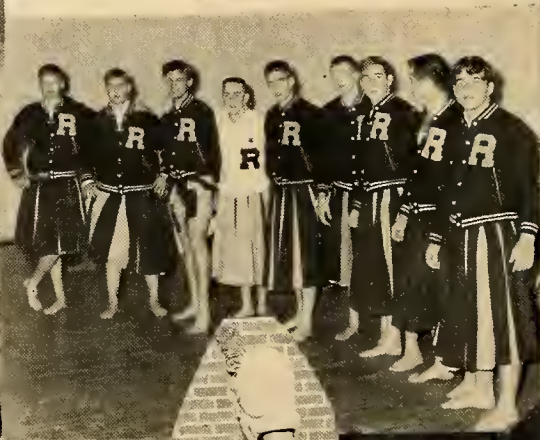

We appoint as executor of this will Mr. E. C. Anderson and do set our hand and seal on this thirty-first day of May, nineteen hundred, fifty seven.

Happy Ending to Our Sentimental Journey

A MESSAGE FROM THE STAFF

We have traveled through school life, stopping to record the important moments—the triumphs, the failures, the good times and bad. As the years go by, memories of our cherished moments will live on in our "Renocahi."

We shall always have a warm spot in our hearts for Miss Wooten, whose guidance has meant so much to each of us. We shall be forever grateful to Mr. Anderson for his patience and understanding. Above all, we thank Miss Conley, without whom this yearbook would not have been possible.

We have come to the end of our "Sentimental Journey." In reality, we have reached a milestone in our long journey through life.

*Good-bye for now!

MAY I HAVE YOUR AUTOGRAPH PLEASE?

Bill,
Best of luck in the future.
Always,
Diana Auman

Bill, I've really enjoyed all three years you've been at school with me and it wasn't only a good time but we were together in the third grade that Valentine's day. I'll miss you and everything you did for me.
Love,
Diana Auman
